If you want to be an entrepreneur, joining our community will equip you with the tools; the skill-sets, the mind-sets and the resources you need to start your business – even from the scratch, grow it and make it thrive despite everything the experts say about the economy.

You will discover how to:

- Think like a business owner and investor
- Build and harness the power of a business B-I Triangle
- Build systems that leverage your efforts, time and resources
- Build a firm foundation for future successes, etc.

The key to financial as well as personal freedom, great wealth and abundance is an individual's ability or skill in converting earned income into passive and residual income through systems that leverage the individual's time and effort. These are the skills that we spend time to learn, develop, build, nurture, practise and personalize in the Aegis-one community.

Join an Entrepreneur's Network. Birds of a feather do indeed flock together. Surrounding yourself with fellow entrepreneurs and like-minded people provide for you the support, encouragement, ideas, inspiration, guidance and the leadership needed to navigate your path successfully through the numerous pitfalls of business operation. When you interact and learn first-hand, the practical business lessons from those who have done, and are still doing what you want to do, you can be well equipped to avoid their mistakes and therefore able to capitalize on their successes and cause your experience to soar at the expense of others.

Offline Communities/ Mastermind Groups. There are offline business communities and mastermind groups at chapters nearest to you where members associate and cooperate with one another to achieve maximum results for themselves and for the team. Team spirit is at the peak and every participant derives full benefits and rewards. Members experience ease and accelerated growth and faster and higher returns on their time and business investments.

Meetings, seminars, workshops, symposia and practical hands-on-projects-training which are great sources of information as well as resources for entrepreneurs are held at regular intervals at different chapters and locations around the country.

Striking out on your own as an entrepreneur is not an easy path to follow, especially in these times, but it is a rewarding and fulfilling one. It is an opportunity for you to define and create your own future; your very essence, and leave something worthwhile for the generations that follow. If you are committed to an unending-lifelong learning, ready to help solve other people's problems and willing to take risks, it might be just the right option career for you.

THE NEED FOR WHAT WE DO.

It is ironic to see human beings created in the image and likeness of God go through life devoid of purpose, vision and direction; living in pains, disharmony, insecurity, strife, poverty, hopelessness and un-fulfilment in the midst of plenty, on the very Earth that God created and saw that it is perfect with all things therein.

A great majority of the people (over 95%) are simply existing in a state described by Jim Rohn as 'Living Death'. This means that over 95% of the people walking the planet earth exist in non-existence. They lack value and substance. Their God's given potentialities are wasted and their places here on earth are left vacant, unfilled. This is tragedy.

There are equal opportunities and resources swimming within and around everyone. Why not take the opportunity and put the resources to use and create abundance and a life of meaning and fulfilment?

First is ignorance; ignorance of who they are, the power they have and the resources available for them. Second is lack of desire and knowledge of the principles and laws that govern the acquisition of wealth, riches and abundance. These are the constituents of what we learn, teach and practise on this platform.

Teaching Methods

E-manuals, videos, zoom, physical contacts through seminars, conferences, workshops, practical-hands-on projects training and study groups are adopted.

Aegis-1 has chapters located at towns and cities around the country. Find the one nearest to you and join them.

Business Networking

Q What is Business Networking and why should I be interested?

A Business Networking implies the interlinking of success-minded people, aspiring entrepreneurs and existing businesses in a larger web-hub, like the spider web, in order to break into new frontiers, explore known and unknown territories, cover more grounds, create new markets and capture more wealth.

Advantages of Business Networking

1. Rapid and easy access to Relevant Information/ Professional Counselling, Life and Business-success Education.
2. An enlarged coast for business operations through on-line and off-line communities, contacts and markets.
3. Rapid and easy accumulation and circulation of wealth among members.
4. Increase in the purchasing power of individual members.
5. An open doorway for the young school leavers, graduates of tertiary institutions and the unemployed members of our society to generate start-up capital and gain the necessary education and experience needed to start their own businesses.
6. Rapid development and transformation of members' mind-sets and financial statuses.
7. Reduction in the financial burdens and stress as a result of total dependence on one particular member of a family for the overall sustenance of the entire family, thereby reducing internal grudging, rancour and divorces among married couples.
8. Opportunity for civil servants/ salary earners with little or no business experience to start building their own businesses on part time bases (moon-lighting) while learning the ropes for full-time entrepreneurship on retirement.
9. Encourages meeting new people and making new friends thereby leading to accelerated market growth and expansion.
10. Encourages business innovation, diversification and expansion.
11. Promotes brotherly love, sense of belongingness and peace amongst people of diverse cultures, traditions and races.

Business Networking is a powerful business catalyst that garners education with modern technology for easy management and optimum utilization of materials and human resources for maximum results at recorded time.

Our Mission

To create successful entrepreneurs in every continent who work together in love to transform individuals, cities and nations of the world into better and fulfilling people to live with, and places to live in.

Our Vision

To create 1 billion successful entrepreneurs in every continent of the world; entrepreneurs who are by their words and deeds, blessings and inspiration to the world and the people around them.

Our Commitment

We are committed to making sure that our clients/ affiliates/ customers leave us: Satisfied, Happy and Joyous.

At Aegis-one, adding value to the customer is priority no. 1.

Our Business

We are in the business of preserving and improving human lives, human values and human dignity. Our success in business means victory against ignorance, poverty and mediocrity and the elevation of human lives, values and dignity.

OUR CORE VALUES

1. Love: we share – give and receive – love with, and from the people around us.

2. Health: we work to maintain healthy spirit, healthy mind, and healthy body.
3. Wealth: we acknowledge and appreciate the fact that:
 - A. Wealth and financial prosperity are keys to spiritual, personal and national development and growth.
 - B. The physical world runs on money; without money, man is impotent, life is stunted and growth is retarded.
 - C. Therefore, we commit to creating and building sustainable and enduring wealth for ourselves, families and the people around us.
4. Networking: opportunities are created by reaching out and caring and providing for the others. Therefore, we practise generosity, caring and togetherness.
5. Education & Training: continuous learning, personal development, business and life-success skills and capabilities are the only real investments one can make in oneself. Therefore, Education and Training is the A – Z reason why we exist.
6. Integrity: choosing to do only that which is right and beneficial to self and humankind.
7. Commitment: being aware that no obstacle is too great to overcome. We are committed to incremental and continuous improvement and growth in person, business and finances and our own environments.
8. Transformation: becoming a better person and making this world a better place to live in.
